

LYNDONVILLE

George Batchelder has decided not to vacate the tenement he has been occupying on Center street, but has engaged a housekeeper, who will continue housekeeping. This will put an end to a contemplated series of moves, as if any family in town starts to move, it sets the whole village in motion.

Mr. Coomer and family are moving from a tenement in the Bunde house to the part of the Ed. Gaudin house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Macy and family. Roy Colburn's people will move from the Goulding house into the Bunde house and Mr. and Mrs. Gould and family who are now living in the Bunde house on Williams street, plan to occupy their own house as soon as it is available.

Charles Aubin and wife from Newport, R. I., have been spending a few days with relatives in town.

Mrs. G. M. Campbell has come home from Springfield, Mass., where she has been for several days with her children.

Kenneth Rice home with her, Dr. George Ferguson, of Toronto, Ohio, has been spending a few days with his parents.

Dr. Maurice Cheney, of Bridgeport, another of our promising young physicians, has also been a guest at his home here.

Miss Ruth Hatch, who has been stopping for a time with her brother, Frank Hatch, has come to St. Johnsbury, to stay with friend and take an extended rest as she has recently come from the hospital, and is not well at all.

George Locke was in town last week with his sister, Mrs. Joseph S. Schofield. He went from here to Maine, where he is employed this summer in the building of a large girls' camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson, of Utica, New York, have been for a few days the guests of his mother, brother and sisters here in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastree Beattie and Mrs. Ida Locke were in St. Johnsbury for the week end. Mrs. Beattie and her mother will remain for a few days and pack up and dispose of Mrs. Locke's household goods, as she will come here to live with her daughter. They expect to move soon into the lower tenement of Mrs. A. J. Chaplin's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns, from Florida, where he has been running an engine this winter, and enjoying the escape from our severe climate.

Miss Samuel Holbrook has been quite ill with the grip and her little daughter with the crown. Her mother, Mrs. James Buell, has been here taking care of them.

Miss Lora Watchie has been in Boston for a few days, visiting her brother, Thomas Neagle.

Miss Jane Terrell, a former student at the Institute, and resident here, is in town from Florida, and plans to remain with friends here and in this vicinity for the next few weeks.

Miss Kathleen LeBaron was in town Monday, with her brother, Roy LeBaron, going to West Burke to give an entertainment Tuesday evening.

She starts very soon on her summer's work for the Chautauque circuit, which will take her into the extreme West this year.

The funeral of Mrs. Rufus Aldrich who died Saturday from typhoid fever was held at her late home Tuesday afternoon, and attended by the Rev. H. J. Hinman. Mrs. Aldrich's maiden name was Wells, and she has been a resident here a number of years.

She was first married to a Mr. Croft by whom she had one daughter, Leona. She then married Rufus Aldrich of this place, and they have three young children. Great sympathy is felt for the family, so suddenly bereaved of a wife and mother.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church meets Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. J. McFarlane. A most interesting program has been arranged, and these meetings are always enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Daniels spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Houghton, in Kirby.

A. F. Christopher has added a large plate glass mirror to his soda fountain equipment and now has the room finished and furnished completely.

The store is painted white, inside and out, and an ornamental lattice separates the main store from the ice cream parlor in the rear. Small tables and bent wood chairs cater to the thirsty public; the furnishings are simple, but in the best taste, and the whole effect is neat, charming, and calculated to appeal to the fastidious public. Philip Verani who has been in business in Northfield, is clerking there now, with Mr. and Mrs. Christopher.

This is "Clean-up Week" under the auspices of the Village Improvement Society, and every one is asked to cooperate in making their houses and lawns look as well as possible. On Friday teams will be sent around and carry away all the rubbish, if it is placed on the sidewalk. As a general thing, this village is kept in fairly good condition, but there are numerous places, especially in the spring which need a thorough cleaning out.

Mrs. Rufus Aldrich, who has been very ill with typhoid fever and resulting complications, died at her home on Main street Saturday evening. She leaves a husband and four young children to mourn her loss.

Glen Pearl was at his home in Sheffield over Sunday, and acted as one of the bearers Sunday at the funeral of Mrs. Dean McDowell, formerly Esther Randall, whose school days were spent in this village.

Earl Roundy visited his father in West Burke the last of the week.

The boys of the American Legion gave an entertainment Thursday evening which drew a full house as is often seen here. The affair was in the form of a military farce "From Reveille to Taps" and was supposed to represent a soldier's day, while in the A. E. F. Drills, calisthenics, the infantry, with a realistic operation, and evening in the barracks, and one in the Cafe de Paris, were all shown by the Legion boys in their uniforms, and various stunts of singing, dancing and funny hits were interspersed.

Harold Carrier, Prescott Moore, Cecil Burns, Arthur Cleary, made very attractive ballet ends, and the other members of the Legion who took part acquitted themselves well in their various roles. A dance followed the show. About $200 was cleared by the performance.

The Orientals gave their annual big dance Friday evening, April 30, with a large number of guests on record. The music was by the Ideal Singing orchestra of Littleton, N. H., and was very fine indeed. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served in the hall, and dancing was enjoyed by this large assembly until about one of the clock, Saturday morning.

Harry Hovey has sold his house on Center street to Ora Leonard of Lyndonville, who plans to occupy it himself.

Mr. Hovey's plans are yet undecided.

Mrs. Ida Locke, who has been in Windsor with her daughter, Mrs. Jennie, since the death of her husband has come here, and will stay with her daughter, Mrs. Eustace Beattie, for the present. The Beatties are going to housekeeping soon in the Gaudette house on Williams street.

Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Davis have returned from a trip to Boston and New York, being absent about ten days.

Hennault's orchestra had their regular dance in the Cable hall Saturday evening, but the attendance was small, as the dancing population was well catered to last week.

Miss Helen Colvin of Montpelier has been staying at G. M. Campbell's for a few days past.

Miss Alice Clarke has gone to work in the laboratory at the creamery for a few weeks.

Mrs. Lillian Chase and daughter, Ethelind, leave soon for the Pacific coast, planning to remain there if they like the country. Mrs. Chase has several relatives in California, and they will go first to a brother's home.

Miss Catherine Emery will accompany them, with the intention of remaining a year. They will all enjoy a fine trip and are much envied by their unfortunate friends, who have to remain in this cold and snowy region.

Miss Emma Fife is away for a few days, visiting Mrs. Eva Wood at Manchester, N. H., and then going to Boston, where she will visit Benjie Fisher, and Miss Velma Jones, who is in Malden with her sister, Mrs. St. Clair English.

Miss Margaret Holtham of Sheffield is working for Mrs. Elvira Gray.

Mrs. Alfred Norton and Mrs. Orville Nadeau visited in Newport last week.

Noel Lachance, Jr., has gone to St. Johnsbury to work in the Fairbanks shops.

James McGill of St. Johnsbury was a Sunday visitor at Isaac Matthews.

Mrs. Elizabeth Collins from Lyndonville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Colby.

George Watkins is home for a few days from his work in Bristol, Conn.

Mrs. Berwick and son of Lyndonville visited at Fred Lund's Sunday.

Phil Fretto is out of school nursing a sprained ankle.

Mr. Berwick clerk for Webster & Kelly, boards with Mrs. J. C. Lucia.

Percy Kennison went Monday to Wolcott, where he has work.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Trinn were in Sheffield Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Dean McDowell.

Peter Hoyt of Haverhill, Mass., is visiting at Elmer Chamberlain's.

Earl Beard and Rose Denonville were Sunday visitors at Paul Houghton's in Lyndonville.

Mrs. James Buell spent a part of last week in Lyndonville with her daughter, Mrs. Morton Holbrook.

Rev. J. Q. Angell left Friday morning for Montpelier, N. H., Mr. Angell's successor and family came Saturday and are guests at H. D. Webster's, till his goods arrive.

The Ladies' Library Association will have a dinner at the Congregational vestry Wednesday. Everyone invited.

John Fountain has moved his family into Jefferson Welch's house, "Riverdale" and works for him.

The third and last men's banquet of the season was held at the Congregational vestry Thursday evening, and was largely attended.

Arthur Sherburn was home from his work in Littleton, N. H., over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills of Lyndonville were Sunday visitors at A. B. Colby's.

Mrs. Hattie Harris and sister, May, have returned home. Mrs. Harris has spent the winter in Sanford, Conn., with her son, Charles, and wife.

Mrs. Emma Wood was in Walden Friday to attend the wedding of her youngest daughter returning to Mt. View Monday.

Joseph Bouthuisse is working at Mt. View farm and his wife at Mary Belden's.

Loren Jenkins has finished work at Mt. View and returns to Montpelier Seminary.

DANVILLE
Harmony Music Club will meet with Mrs. Wallace H. Nutting, May 10, to hold its semi-annual "gentlemen's" night.

A May party was held at the Congregational church Saturday afternoon for the primary Sunday school. Refreshments were served and games played.

Mrs. C. M. Morse and daughter of Cabot spent Friday with Mrs. C. A. Hatch.

About 10 young friends of Irving Morse and their mothers were entertained at his home Wednesday in honor of his 5th birthday. Party refreshments were served and all enjoyed a merry time.

Mrs. Ida Paine, who has spent the last two months with her aunt, Mrs. Maria Dole, has returned to her home at Plymouth, N. H.

Miss Mabel Howe of Danville visited Mrs. C. A. Hatch Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rowe, who had a slight operation at Brightlook Hospital last week, has so far recovered as to be able to return home.

Mrs. W. E. Dole, who has been in St. Johnsbury the past week caring for her sister, Mrs. George Wilson, in her illness came home Sunday, leaving Mrs. Wilson some better.

Earle H. Fisher has received his honorary discharge from the army and returned home. He visited friends in Danville last week.

Mrs. Nettie Fisher, who has been caring for Mrs. Augusta Dole, has returned to St. Johnsbury. Mrs. Dole is much improved in health, although still unable to go out.

Pictures for Friday evening, May 7, will be William Hart in "The Poppy Girl's Husband," and the Paramount Weekly Magazine.

Rev. E. G. French will preach at the Congregational church Sunday, May 9, instead of May 2 as stated last week, in the absence of Rev. C. A. Adams, who will be enjoying a vacation. During the following week, May 11-13, Rev. Adams will attend the Vermont Congregational Conference, at Brattleboro.

The Woman's Missionary Society wish to send a missionary barrel to a southern school at an early date. Anyone having wearing apparel or other useful articles for this purpose are requested to bring them to the Congregational parsonage during this week.

WEST BARNET
A surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. John Strobbridge Monday evening, at the hall, in regret of their moving out of the village. The evening was spent socially and in dancing. Delicious refreshments were served and the best of good wishes extended to Mr. and Mrs. Strobbridge in their new home.

Grange meeting was held Tuesday evening and a fair crowd gathered despite the weather. The program consisted of a chorus by Lee White and Stuart Stevenson. One of those original poems that one so enthusiastically welcomed by the famous composer, A. W. Hastie, recitation, Lee White and song by Thessa Blain. Mrs. Gladys Roy, Robert Strobbridge and Stuart Stevenson. Los Angeles. Two applications were brought in. Voted to give $5 for the prizes of the children at the agricultural exhibit in the fall. A resolution was adopted to have the stone crusher put to use this month before it is rented, to be handed over to the selectmen.

Mrs. Cordelia Fife visited old friends in this place two days last week.

Mrs. Joseph Blair returned home Thursday from a visit in Boston.

James Nelson is moving onto the William Gibson farm he has purchased.

Nelson Blain is employed by F. L. Lackie to work on the road.

Mrs. Fred Easton was called to Springfield, Mass., last week by the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Carrie Roy is caring for Mrs. Charles Jennison and baby at Greenbay.

James Ritchie was in East Barnet, Thursday.

Mrs. L. A. Blain, Ruby and Marion Blain, Thessa Blain, Mrs. James Blain, Lee White, Glen White, Elizabeth Nutter, George Nutter were in St. Johnsbury Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roy were in St. Johnsbury Thursday.

Miss Ruth Stevenson visited Mrs. Claude Stew at Melndoes Saturday.

A surprise party was given Louise White and Glen Adams Saturday night at the school house. Games were played and refreshments served.

Archibald Craig spent the week end at Stuart Stevenson's.

James Allan has sold his farm to Walter Harvey. He has an auction May 12.

Mrs. Fenton Judkins and Elsie McLaren were guests at James Allen's, Saturday.

Miss Vienna Lackie was a caller at Mrs. Lucius Brock's Saturday.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER
Miss Jessie Williams of Concord was at Charles Salmon's Saturday.

George Shorey spent the week end with his sister, Miss Mar Shorey of St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Raymond Roberts and two children are spending a few weeks with Mr. Roberts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Roberts of Lyndonville.

Miss Avis Walter who has been working for Mrs. Raymond Roberts returned to her home at West Burke Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wallace of Melndoes moved last week to their new home recently bought of Mrs. Sarah Swasey.

Miss Etta Folsom spent the week end with her mother at Barton.

Mrs. Frank Ward of St. Johnsbury visited at Charlie Amidon's Sunday.

Mrs. Erastus Hallett died unday evening of heart failure. She was at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Gallagher.

Bernice Wheeler has gone back to Walter Hall's to stay for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beck of St. Johnsbury visited at Bert McLaughlin's Sunday.

An entertainment will be given by the school next Friday evening, May 7.

Mrs. Dyke of Massachusetts has been called to the home of her brother, Henry Powers on account of the very feeble health of her mother, Mrs. Sylvia Powers.

Mrs. Frank Drew and daughter, Alice, of St. Johnsbury visited Mrs. Dole's sister, Mrs. Charles Bennett, over the week end.

CONCORD
There will be a service Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. James' Episcopal chapel with the sermon by Rev. Dr. A. P. Grint of St. Johnsbury.

WELLS RIVER

Week end guests of the Tavern included Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cole of Boston, Edgar Lord of Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stewart, Mr. Merchant of Boston.

Mrs. Henry Winslow who has been so ill with a mastoid abscess returned home from St. Johnsbury Sunday accompanied by her daughter, Miss Marcia Winslow.

The Woman's Missionary Society met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Donald Fraser.

Mrs. H. T. Baldwin is confined to the house with mumps.

Mrs. Nellie K. Hildreth and brother, George Kimball of Haverhill were in town Saturday.

Mr. Fraser spoke in the interests of the Inter-Church movement at Barre, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hobb of Hinsdale, N. H., have been spending a few days in town.

Carroll Powers has moved his family into the house owned by Charles Little of Woodsville.

The Ideal orchestra of Littleton held a dance at the Village Hall, May 5. Mrs. Nettie Vincent served delicious ice cream at intermission.

Our local high school baseball team defeated Newbury High in a ten inning game Monday by a score of 6 to 5.

NORTH WALDEN

Lytle Orton and Arlo Holland returned from Erving and Athol, Mass., Monday. William Holland from Erving came home with them.

John E. Sinnott was in Hardwick Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Vallancourt of Lawrence, Mass., are at Henry A. Doney's.

Supt. Nelson J. Whitehill of White River Junction was in town Friday to see Eugene A. Doney. He also visited at the Star school.

Ernest Orton is caring for his father, Lyman Orton.

Harlowe Shattney and E. L. Adams are working for W. E. Stevens. Elmer Hussey has moved from George Jerome's to Mrs. John Hancock's house.

Supt. Burbank visited school Monday.

Gladys Orton spent the week end at her home.

Arlo Holland is working for J. E. Sinnott and William Holland is working for Henry Adams.

Elsie M. Doney spent the week at her uncle's Hardy L. Paronto.

As Harrison H. Doney was taking a load of syrup and sugar to East Hardwick Friday, his fore wheels dropped into a mud hole at the top of Hoods' Hill. The sudden drop forced the cups of syrup forward through the front end board. Harrison was thrown forward onto the pole. The horses became frightened as the large cans of syrup rolled onto them and ran about 1-8 mile, before they were stopped. Fortunately slight injuries were the only result.

Mrs. Clyde Little visited relatives in Wolcott recently.

Eugene Doney and Anthony Rose attended the May ball at Hardwick.

Mrs. William French is working for Mrs. Leon Stewart.

The King's Daughters will meet with Mrs. J. N. Nicholson, May 12. Gladys Allen is helping Mrs. J. E. Sinnott.

G. H. Haselton has sold his farm to A. A. Goodrich and Robert Shurtliff of Hardwick. Mr. Haselton moves Monday to East Hardwick.

WALDEN

Miss Kelly, Home Demonstrator, gave a demonstration on sugar substitutes at Mrs. Nellie Kittredge's last Friday p. m. Twelve ladies were present.

Mrs. Vera Annis, who has been at Frank Shaw's has returned to her home in Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Kingsbury of Newport, N. H., visited the Kingsbury's last week.

Miss Elsie Foster has gone to Taunton, Mass., where she has employment.

A. E. Counsell's mechanic, I. A. Osgood installed a universal milking machine for G. H. Kingsbury last week.

THE WONDERFUL FRUIT MEDICINE

Every Home in This State Needs "Fruit-a-lives"

To those suffering with Indigestion, Torpid Liver, Constipation, Sick or Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Kidney Trouble, Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Eczema and other Skin Affections, 'Fruit-a-lives' gives prompt relief and assures a speedy recovery when the treatment is faithfully followed.

'Fruit-a-lives' is the only medicine made from fruit - containing the medicinal principles of apples, oranges, figs and prunes, combined with valuable tonics and antiseptics. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid. BY FRUIT-A-LIVES LIP OGDENSBURG, N. Y.

M. G. Morse is Now State Tax Commis

Several changes took place offices under the gilded de Montpelier, May 1, following resignation of E. Lee Whitte to the state librarian H. Avery, formerly the referbrarian, resigned as tax er and resumes his old positio is now consolidated with the librarian through the wint resigned that position to Mr. Avery as Tax Commission was announced from Gov. (office that a reduction in the force would result from the already effected.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The Republican voters of the Town of St. Johnsbury are hereby notified that a Republican Caucus will be held in the Town Hall, in the Town of Johnsbury, on May 15, 1920, at two o'clock in afternoon, for the transaction of the following business:

First. To elect eleven delegates and eleven ternates to the State Republican Convention, to held at Montpelier on Wednesday, May 26, 1920.

Second. To determine the number of members of the Republican Town Committee, for the ensuing year, and to elect all the members of said committee.

Third. To transact any other business proposed to come before said caucus.

Dated at St. Johnsbury, this 1st day of May, D., 1920.

CHAS. A. SHIELDS,
FRANK N. CARR,
W. W. BLODGETT,
Republican Town Committee

The Secret

THE secret of "getting your money's worth" lies in the elimination of buying mistakes. The woman who understands herself and her corset problem doubles her available capital by never buying the wrong corset.

And the surest way to always buy the right corset is to place yourself in the hands of a competent corsetiere who will make the solving of your problem a matter of personal pride.

If you are considering the purchase of a new corset let us suggest the

GOSSARD Frank Loring CORSET

There is no figure, however unusual or difficult to fit, but can be successfully fitted by our expert corsetiers in these original front being corsets. We guarantee your entire satisfaction.

LOUGEE & SMYTHE

"The Shopping Center"

Pride of The Kitchen

This splendid Bread Flour has justly made many staunch friends for itself in St. Johnsbury and Car Load Just Received vicinity.

Buy now; flour is relatively cheap.
All Round and Pastry Flour also in stock.

A. H. McLeod Milling Co.

Quality Flour, Feed and Grain
St. Johnsbury, Vermont
Telephone 18